F o r e w o r d

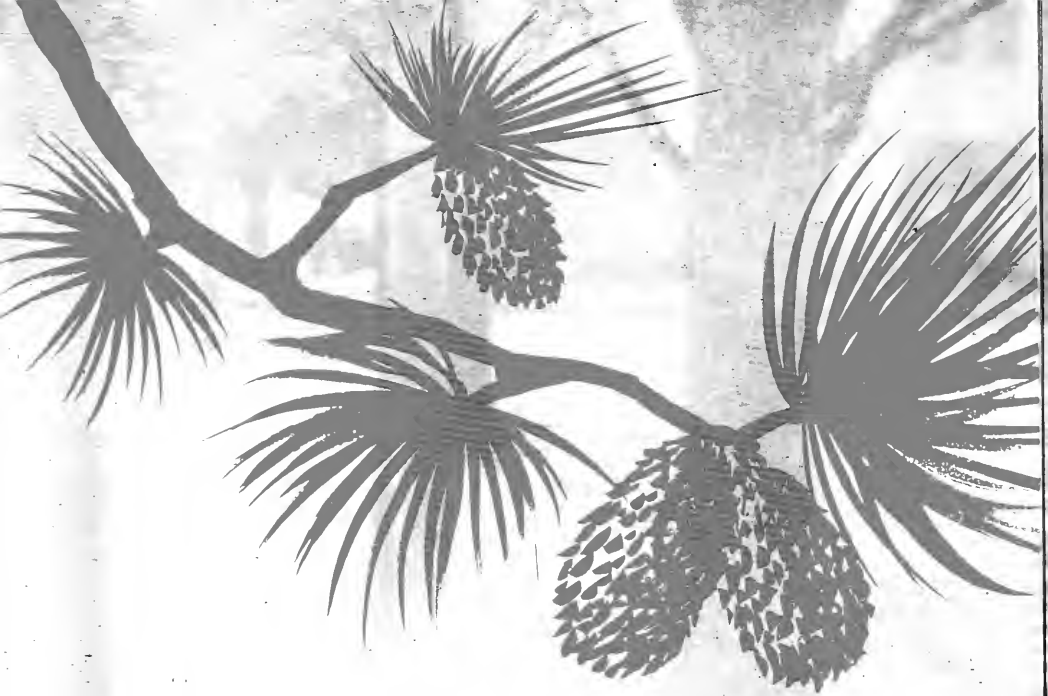

1945 has been a strange year. Part of our Heart has been gone with the boys and girls who are serving our country. In spite of this we have had enriched and profitable school days. This STAR gives you a picture of how you and your friends have spent this wartime school year.

As nothing is perfect, mistakes already noticed have crept in at a time too late for correction. Please understand that the printer, the engraver, and we ourselves have been handicapped by shortages. The time element also has contributed to many mistakes. If these errors concern you, we are extremely sorry.

In this space the Editor extends sincerest thanks to the Staff, to Miss Bennie Gene Bledsoe, and to Miss Amy Jean Greene for their untiring cooperation.

May this, your 1945 STAR, always recall pleasant memories of Henderson.

TEACHERS COLLEGE

Spring 1945

Dear Hendersonians,

Here's an open letter to all of you. To those of you who have walked the halls of Henderson and found it good and new from a distance look with longing eyes towards our Campus - and to those of you who have walked these halls this year, we write this letter.

It is filled with news in which we think you might be interested, and with pictures of the Grand Old School and its present faculty and students and their activities.

MISS ELEANOR GILLIAM

Dedication

Although with us a relatively short time, you have already won a place in the heart of every woman student and every Reddie with whom you have come in contact. You have done it first by being yourself. Under your sensible, understanding, and cheerful guidance, we have grown, and our women students have caught your spirit of noble living.

For passing over all the foolish, frivolous, and weak things that you cannot help seeing in us, for ignoring the possibilities of the weakling in us, and for laying firm hold on the possibilities of our good, we thank you.

With sincere appreciation for your keen insight, rare judgment, and frank criticisms, we honor you not only as our Dean of Women, but also as an understanding friend. For these reasons we dedicate our 1945 STAR to you - - - Miss Eleanor Gilliam.

As you can see Proctor and Science Halls still sleep peacefully beneath the pines, the Boys' Dorm is again the home of Joe College and Ma Maguire, and Haygood Gym still has its roof lifted at basket ball games and its face lifted at Thoms.

We have a number of new faculty members this year, but they caught the Reddie Spirit the minute they arrived and now truly belong to us. Of course, the greatest change is the absence of Miss Mooney who retired last June.

We still catch ourselves looking for her to come across the bridge from Key Hall to the Ad Building.

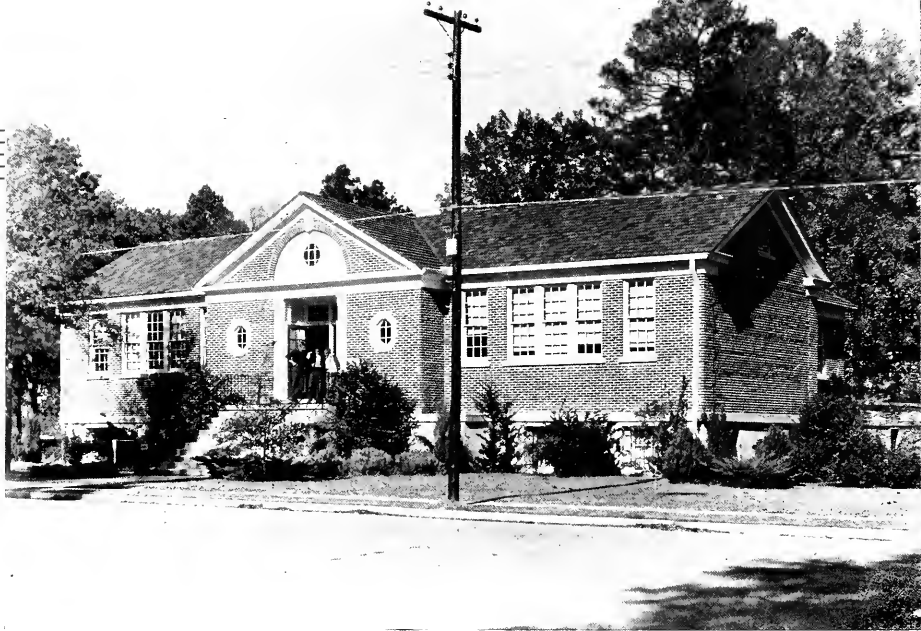

Our faculty members are the same as ever. Mr. Surrentine still gives those gosh-awful exams. Dr. Fowler is telling those same jokes but has added magic tricks to his repertoire, and Pro Arnett's pipes and ties still smell.

DR. MATT L. ELLIS

Henderson is proud to have Dr. Ellis for her president. He has served in this position since 1941. During this time he has proved himself a learned and inspirational leader to all Hendersonians.

Dr. S. C. E. Powers

Dean and Head of Department of Political Science and Sociology.

His wit, intelligence, and fine understanding of human nature are reasons for Dr. Powers' popularity on the campus.

Mr. Robert T. Proctor

Registrar and Associate Professor of History

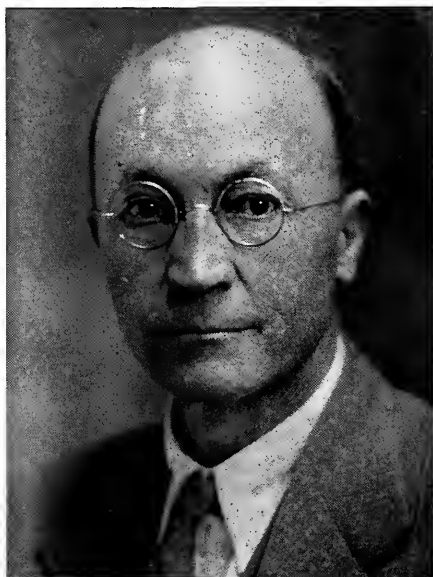

The loyalty and service of Mr. Proctor are most worthy of Henderson's pride in him.

NO PICTURE:

Mr. H. Grady Smith

MISS MARY SUE MOONEY

To print this annual without Miss Mooney's picture would have been impossible. This first year without her has been difficult, even though her visit this spring did ease the pain of her absence. In this small way an attempt is made to show an elegant lady that whether with us or away, she has a reserved place on our campus and in our hearts.

Our classes have changed will admit. To put it briefly, they have become definitely more feminine. And now, brother! Our handful of college men really has its hands full with the girls declaring every day Sadie Hawkins Day. Classes are smaller, but what we have lost in number we have gained in pep, and we are here to say there never has been such a Roddie Spirit.

Class faces change each year, but Joe College and Betty Good remains pretty much the same. Those sloppy sweaters and saddle shoes just stay in the picture. We beat it down to the Hut at night, and haven't the tavern and Nick's during the day. And the book store isn't neglected too many gals keep looking for those V-mail envelopes!

We have had all our Campus features this year. Cameras aren't snapping as much as in the days when films and flash bulbs were a matter of course, but we have tried to keep a picture record of Henderson activities as we have always done. The Campus has had its full quota of gaiety this winter.

The Halloween King and Queen reigned over a superb autumn carnival. And we had loads of fun watching the King and Queen of Hearts crowned at the Valentine Ball.

Miss Wanda Billingsley
Editor, The 1945 Star
Henderson State Teachers College
Philadelphia, Ark.

Dear Miss Billingslea:

Dear Miss Billingsley:

As you can see by the enclosed picture of the "Duffy's Tavern" case and myself, we had a very hard job deciding which of the five was the most cautious. -- which I finally narrowed it down to two -- which happened to be -- Martha Seagrass and -- and after our decision had been made, that the winner was none other than our charming correspondent, the Editor of The Star -- yourself. Congratulations!

The Secretary will return the photographs in a separate cover.

Sincerely,
C. J. Anderson

My secretary will return the photographs to you under separate cover.

Sincerely

sincerely

Who's Who Among Students in

JEANNE ADAMS

A truly Typical Henderson Girl, Jeanne has won a place for two years in national WHO'S WHO. Her friendliness, tact, and dependability have merited such honors as Editor of the Oracle, President of Y. W. C. A., and membership into Kappa Delta Pi. With her persistence, ability, and ever-increasing popularity, it is easy to see why Jeanne is Henderson's Most Valuable Student.

CLAUDIA AGEE

Claudia has proved herself an exceptional leader and a good influence on the campus through her work with the Upsilon Phi Sorority, the Woman's Council, and the Choral Club. An accomplished music student, a sophisticated senior, and an attractive all-around young woman—that's Claudia.

BEVERLY BEANE

Because everyone who knows her loves her, because she has made a place just for herself at Henderson, and because "Bev" is so easy to get along with, she was chosen for national WHO'S WHO. President of the Junior Class is one of her many honors. Bev loves bridge, fun, and people, and by simply being herself she is a top-ranking Reddie on the campus.

American Colleges and Universities

WANDA BILLINGSLEA

National WHO'S WHO fell to Wanda for the second time this year also. Her vivacious personality has gained her the honor of cutest girl at Henderson for three years. Wanda is the capable Editor of the Star, and because of her ability as a leader has headed the Senior Class, Kappa Delta Pi, and Philo Sorority as president.

EURITH DILDY

"Daddy" Dildy's widespread popularity on the campus merited him a place in national WHO'S WHO. Always ready to make the best of any situation, Eurith has added much to all events on the campus. During the first semester he led Gammas as their president and has made a place for himself on the Henderson campus which cannot be filled by anyone.

SUE JONES

Being a transfer did not hinder Sue's popularity in the least. By her second year at Henderson she was chosen for national WHO'S WHO. Either a queen or maid at all social events, this music student from Malvern has shown that she possesses not only intelligence, but beauty and popularity as well.

Who's Who Among Students in

MARTHA SEARCY

A beauty every year at Henderson and Queen of Stars when only a sophomore, Martha has also carried the honor of the most popular girl for two years. In spite of being a little girl, "Mott" has won the heart of everyone with her sweet smile and pleasant disposition. Beauty, however, is not all with Martha, for she is a Kappa Delta Pi member, vice-president of the Student Body, and has a major part in almost every campus activity.

ROY SCOGGINS

To enumerate all of Roy's honors at Henderson would be impossible. His major position this year is that of president of the Student Body. A member of national WHO'S WHO for the second year, Roy has also claimed such titles as Most Versatile Boy, Friendliest Boy, Most Popular Boy, and Typical Henderson Boy in our own College's Who's Who. His winning personality has drawn friends to him from over the whole campus.

American Colleges and Universities

BURRELL VENABLE

Burrell, a very well-known figure at Henderson, has his finger in almost every pie here. A junior from Texarkana, being second semester president of Gamma Sigma, and member of the Student Senate are a few of his honors. Mail call is his most popular time, and his work in the Bookstore, humor and patient answers to "Burrell, did I get a letter?" are a few reasons he has made his own niche at Henderson.

GLORIA YOUNG

Versatile is the word for Gloria. Almost a straight "A" student and super-efficient business manager of the Star, combined with an over abundance of vitality and ability to have a good time make her an exceptional young lady. Spanish is her pet, and she says she is going to South America some day. Sparkling eyes, bobbing curls, and a cute smile make her an all-over favorite on the campus.

King and Queen O' Halloween

Time for witches and broomsticks and the Y. W. C. A. sponsored the annual Hallowe'en Carnival. Festivity was the key word of the night, and the old gym was literally transformed to the out-of-doors with its hay, pumpkins, and cornstalks. Before the big event of the night was the carnival—complete with bingo, kissing booths, fortune telling, and apple ducking. Soldiers from the Redistribution Station at Hot Springs come and entered right into the fun and frolic.

The highlight of the evening was the coronation of the King and Queen, JIGGS STEWART and JUDY HALLIDAY, both freshmen, by Dr. S. C. E. Powers. Maids and Escorts were: Sophomores—Bets Duganey and Bruce Ellis, Juniors—Joy Johnston and Ned Chadwick, (Burrell Venable was proxy), and Seniors—Wanda Lane and Roy Scoggins. Crown bearers were Anna Kate Reid and Cy Huie.

King and Queen O'Hearts

Valentine Day drew near. Philos, Ups, Gammas, Garlands put up their candidates and bang . . . the race began! Scheming, planning, campaigning, buying annuals, and then . . . 4:00 p. m.! The big clock in the hall said it was over!

Next . . . frantic counting of the votes. Winners? None other than ROY SCOGGINS of the Gammas, and BETTY GAISER of the Upsilon Phi. Dr. Matt L. Ellis crowned them at the Valentine Dance sponsored by the STAR. The Maid and Escort of honor were Ben Hines, Garland and Margaret Weaver, Philo. Others in the court were: Mary Stuart Jackson, Philo, and Ramey Nelson, Gamma, as Freshman representatives; (Jimmy Elms, Gamma, was proxy), Billie Oliver, Philo, and James Clarke, Garland, as Sophomore representatives; Sue Jones, Philo, and Burrell Venable, Gamma, as Junior representatives; and Wanda Lane, Philo, and Eurith Dildy, Gamma, as Senior representatives. Crown bearers were Anna Kate Reid and Jimmy Pounds.

Have you heard that the Philas and Ups went society on us?

Each one has been trying to give the best entertainments and pledge the cutest girls.

The Hammus and Harlands
naturally are still fighting it out too. The Oracle is still the best.

The campus military units are few in number, but they have the old Reddie Spirit and really do some fine work.

One of the big events of the year was the return of intercollegiate sports.

The ban was lifted just in time for basket ball season, and we had a glorious time - with cheer-leaders and everything.

REDDIE RACKET

By ROY SCOGGINS

After inactivity in sports for two years, Henderson and other Arkansas colleges resumed a partial schedule of athletics in 1944-45.

The REDDIES played a schedule of sixteen games with colleges and service teams.

Henderson began the season by taking three warm-up victories from independent teams of Gurdon and Arkadelphia.

Two of the top service teams of the South, NATTC and NAS of Memphis, soundly trounced the REDDIES in the opening games of the season. Henderson was no match for the service stars.

Collegiate competition began with a two-day trip to Conway, and the REDDIES dropped games to Hendrix and State Teachers. The next game played was in Russellville, and Henderson was on the short end of a game played against Arkansas Tech.

The rivalry between Henderson and Ouachita was renewed with the Tigers taking a thrilling 49-43 victory.

Blytheville Army Air Field defeated the REDDIES in the first game of a five-day road trip. Then came a close defeat by the Arkansas State College quintet. NATTC and NAS again easily won over the REDDIES in two games played at the Naval Base in Memphis.

Henderson lost two more games to Ouachita. The season was completed as the REDDIES lost in games played with State Teachers, Hendrix, State College, and Arkansas Tech.

Coach Duke Wells held intra-mural football practice for three weeks. The REDDIE squad of 23 men showed much spirit; and if V-E day comes during the summer, the football team will play a full schedule next fall.

Intra-mural programs were carried out in touch-football, ping pong and softball. Many close and exciting games were played in the four-team football league. Two ping pong tournaments were held during the year. Softball games furnished recreation after spring football was completed.

The Senior class and Y. M. C. A. added sports interest to the college program by sponsoring two high school invitation basketball tournaments.

Hendersonians can expect a big shot in the arm now that the REDDIES are about to resume athletics. The abandonment of sports was necessary to add strength to our fighting forces. However, Arkansas colleges can now see ahead to a future of intercollegiate sports, and Hendersonians are all "REDDIE" to train for them in a big way.

Membership into the Student Senate involves not only honor, but also responsibility and duty to carry out that which will best serve Henderson.

This body, composed of the president of the student body, the vice-president, a senator-at-large, and the president and a senator from each class, insures representation of the students and is a means whereby the student's wishes can be obtained.

Under the leadership of its president, the Senate has worked to promote a spirit of co-operation and good-will between the students and faculty and plans and carries out such activities as freshman orientation week, the freshman dance, recreational programs, and various other intra-school functions.

A combined council of Mooney and Womack Hall girls, this organization is one of the most democratic organizations on the campus. Members are selected by the girls who will take what punishment or good the council determines for them.

They aren't mean girls, nor even snooping ones—but nevertheless you look guiltily around to see if one was looking when you did that campus offense . . . and you held your breath when Mrs. A. said "turn down that radio" . . . and you looked twice to see who was at the desk at 11:30 when you had forgotten to sign in.

But the council does more than campus. They are constantly changing and improving their form of governing dormitory life, and are ever ready to help girls deserve what they get and get what they deserve.

In 1935 music students organized Beta Mu Omicron for those who were interested in and enjoyed good music. Since that time it has held a valuable and steady place among the extra-curricula activities at Henderson. Organized by the students themselves, it has remained in their hands and has proved to be a great enjoyment for all music lovers who wish to study as they please and what they please without classroom regulations.

This year Philos changed their name from Philomatheon Literary Society, and they too won the distinction of becoming a sorority. As is customary with Philos, they have given outstanding parties, dances, and receptions this year as in the past.

With a new aim for building character, leadership, and distinctive womanhood, Philo has become a well-knit organization with the result of true sisterly love and lasting friendship for her members.

For forty years the Garland Literary Society has held an influential place on the Henderson Campus. Full of "Reddie Spirit," Garland has increased in membership, power, and activity until it is truly a worthy group interested in all phases of college life. These young men will recognize their benefits derived from the Garland Society long after their days at Henderson.

This Star represents an attempt to give a true picture of our war time college. It's a great school, we think, because of its former students and teachers, each of whom has contributed to the growth of Riddie Spirit. Those of us who have had the privilege of being members of the 1944-45 student body have felt an obligation to keep alive the real spirit of Henderson, to preserve it for those of you who are away, and to pass it on to future Hendersonians.

That this letter (in the shape of a Star) to everyone who loves Henderson will contribute to the preservation of the ideal of our Henderson Heart is the sincere wish of Gloria Wanda and

Many new products and improved methods are born in the Crossett research laboratories.

Crossett's sawmills produce millions of board feet of lumber annually.

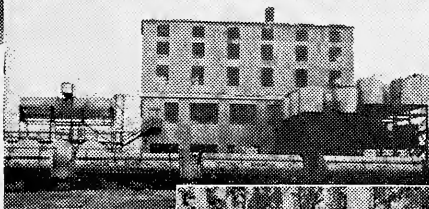

PERMANENCE

founded on

FOREST INDUSTRIES

Timber is Arkansas's only natural resource which replenishes itself. Crossett perpetuates that replenishment by harvesting timber as a crop under a conservation and management program which embraces conversion of every by-product of lumber manufacture into commodities of commercial value. Significance of these enterprises is, that through them, Crossett has become established as a permanent industrial community and a sustaining factor in the steady growth of its home state.

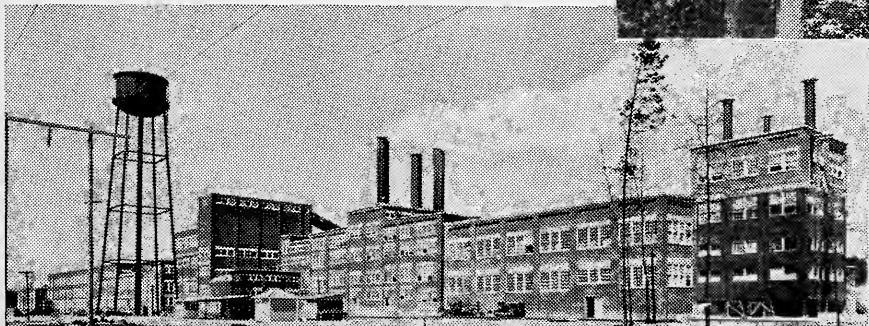

THE CROSSETT COMPANIES
CROSSETT, ARKANSAS

Above: Crossett chemical plant, producing methanol, acetic acid and related wood distillation products.

Right: Under Crossett's forest management program new growth is appearing each year to produce merchantable timber in the years to come.

Below: Crossett Paper Mill, one of the South's largest producers of kraft paper and pulp. Another example of Crossett's intensive program of conservation by utilization.

Your WARTIME ANNUAL a most treasured possession

In the years to come, this Annual will surely become one of your most treasured possessions.

In it are pictures of friends and classmates who may travel to the far corners of the globe—many of them fighting a war to preserve, for us, the right to express our traditional freedoms.

The right, for instance, to choose our own school—and the right to publish other annuals like this one, if we please.

Yes, your wartime annual, more than any other, will become more precious with the years.
